

Congressional Update from Representative Hunt

Hello,

Our first few weeks of the 118th Congress have been historic, and I'm proud to share some of our most important updates, bills, votes, and priorities. To ensure you are aware of the important work my office is doing for TX-38, I will communicate with you and send these updates frequently.

Wesley Hunt Votes for H.R. 23 - Family and Small Business Taxpayer Protection Act

One of my first acts after being sworn in was to vote in favor of legislation to repeal President Biden's army of 87,000 new IRS agents. Our country does not have a tax revenue problem, it has a spending problem. We need to get our financial house in order, not target middle-class families and small businesses to pay for the reckless spending in Washington.

H. Res. 11 – Establishing the Select Subcommittee on Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party

I voted to establish a select subcommittee on strategic competition between the U.S. and China. In order for the United States to remain the world's dominant superpower, we must confront uncomfortable realities and be prepared to recognize the threat posed by the Chinese Communist Party.

The Select Subcommittee on Strategic Competition between the U.S. and the CCP will continue the work started by the China Task Force to develop novel solutions that will address the CCP's growing aggression on the world stage.

H. Res. 12 – Establishing a Select Subcommittee on Weaponization of the Federal Government

I also voted to establishing a subcommittee on the weaponization of the Federal Government.

The American people entrusted the Republican Party with the majority because they demand a government that is accountable to the American people, not a two-tier system of justice that weaponizes government agencies to investigate and prosecute citizens because of their political beliefs."

Wesley Hunt joins Fox Across America to discuss Joe Biden's Mishandling of Classified Documents

Texas Republican Congressman Wesley Hunt joins Fox Across America with Jimmy Failla to shed light on why everyone in this country should be concerned about President Biden's handling of classified documents and the White House's overall lack of transparency in this matter.

"The problem is this lack of honesty and this lack of treating everybody fairly is what the American public is absolutely fed up with. They absolutely overplayed their hand and then now they've got to pay for it. And I'll tell you what, Jim Jordan is all over this. The House Judiciary Committee is going to be all over this, and they're going to have a very rough year. But my dad had a saying. He said it's all good and fun till the rabbit's got the gun. And now that we have the House and now that we have Judiciary, I hope they clear out their calendars and get ready for a lot of hearings, a lot of explaining that they have to do to the American public."

Wesley Hunt Selected to Serve on the House Judiciary Committee

Wesley Hunt joins the Judiciary Committee. The Committee on the Judiciary has been called the lawyer for the House of Representatives because of its jurisdiction over matters relating to the administration of justice in federal courts, administrative bodies, and law enforcement agencies. Its infrequent but important role in impeachment proceedings has also brought it much attention.

Any legislation that carries a possibility for criminal or civil penalties can be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, so its legislative workload is substantial. The committee's weighty agenda has frequently placed it in a central role in American politics, most notably during its consideration of impeachment charges against presidents of the United States in both 1974 and 1998.

Congressman Hunt released the following statement on his selection to Judiciary,

"I am honored to be selected to serve on the House Judiciary Committee, America deserves a government that is accountable. I look forward to getting to work for the American people."

Wesley Hunt Selected to Serve on the House Committee on Natural Resources

The House Committee on Natural Resources considers legislation about American energy production, mineral lands and mining, fisheries and wildlife, public lands, oceans, Native Americans, irrigation and reclamation. Learn more about Republican Leader Bruce Westerman (R-Ark.) and meet all of the Committee Members.

Wesley released the following statement on being selected to the House Committee on Natural Resources, "as the Energy Congressman of the World, I look forward to continuing our work to unleash American energy on the Natural Resources Committee."

Congressional District 38 Swearing-in Ceremony

Congressman Wesley Hunt's In-district swearing in ceremony took place at Champion Forest Baptist Church. The Invocation was administered by Pastor Jarrett Stephens, and the Oath of Office was administered by Judge Lincoln Goodwin. Wesley grew up attending Champion Forest Baptist Church every Sunday with his family.

"I was raised in the spirit of Christ at Champion Forest Baptist Church, so it was one of the greatest honors of my life to be sworn-in here as a United States Congressman. I cannot express in words the joy and gratitude I feel for everyone who joined us for this special occasion. Now the work begins."

Our work is just getting started! I look forward to fighting for you in the halls of the 118th Congress.

Sincerely,
